

Objective

Pharmaceutical sciences combine scientific aspects that are critical in the development and manufacture of new drugs, handling of medicines and medical devices. Drug discovery is the process through which potential new medicines are identified. It involves a wide range of scientific disciplines, including biology, chemistry and pharmacology. Pharmaceuticals and Pharmaceutical Technology is concerned with the design and formulation of drugs into different dosage forms which also involves the development of new drug delivery systems that ensure drug efficacy with minimal side effects. Drug design is the inventive process of finding new medications based on the knowledge of a biological target. In the present conference, pharmaceutical experts from various international/national organizations will address the diverse aspects related to drug discovery, drug design, pharmaceutical technology
